Nativity Prep is an accredited Jesuit middle school (grades 5 – 8) providing tuition-free education to approximately 60 boys of all faiths from low-income families living in Boston's inner-city neighborhoods. The school offers a comprehensive academic, spiritual, social and athletic program and serves as a model for other urban schools across the country. To learn more, please go to www.nativityboston.org.

Volunteer opportunities include:

- Mentoring Nativity Alumni in high school and college.
- Tutoring in the Evening Study Program. Volunteers are needed to help students with homework on one or more evenings from 6:30 – 8:30, Monday – Thursday.
- Preparing and delivering dinner to students and faculty in the Evening Study Program.
- Gardening and helping with general upkeep of school grounds.

Wish List

- The school uses a very specific binder for their students that supports their teaching of study habits and organization. The binder is from the Case-It-Company and can be ordered on-line at www.caseit.com (Item Number D-500 Zipper Binder). The cost is $14.99 each. 30 binders are needed for new students and replacements.
- Pen-03 Pen/Pencil Cases. These can also be ordered on-line through www.caseit.com. The cost is $4.99 each. 30 cases are needed.
- Pencils and Erasers.
- Donations to the school's Annual Fund support everything from the school's tuition free programs (including its graduate support program and summer intensive program) to buying textbooks and paying utility bills.
